

WHIP-POOR-WILL.

Frederick Manley.

W. W. Gilchrist.

Whippoor-

1. The ves-per sparrow now has sung His farewell to the
2. A vagabond that shuns the way His woodland breth'ren 3. The children tuck'd in bed can hear The plaintive trem-u - will, whip-poor, whip-poor-will, day, keep, lo, The Who And whisk'ring breeze of night has swung The birds to sleep on bough and trusts to chance from day to day, Who holds the rights of bird-ies Bil-ly thinks he says, "O dear," Be-cause in day-light he must

Whip-poor-will, Whip-poor, whip-poor, whip-poor, whip-poor, whip-poor-will, spray; . . cheap; . . go . . . But from the val-ley and the The nests he steals when-e'er he To sleep while oth-ers play and whip-poor - will, p whip - poor-will, pp hill . . . There comes a voice, a bro - ken lay, And "Whip-poor-will" it will, . . . The rest he breaks when oth - ers sleep, With "Whip-poor-will" sung trill, . . . And on - ly wake when things are drear; "I wish," says Bill, "some" whip-poor - will, Whip - poor-will, Poor whip - poor - will, Whip - poor - seems to say, "Poor whippoorwill, poor whippoorwill, whip - poor-will, loud and deep, "Poor whippoorwill, poor whippoorwill, whip - poor-will, bird would hear And play with Will, poor whippoorwill, whip - poor-will, whip - poor-will, whip - poor-will, whip - poor-will,

whip - poor - will, whip - poor, whip - poor, whip - poor, whip - poor, whip - poor - will.

whip-poor-will, whip-poor-will, whip - - poor-will."

whip-poor-will, whip - poor, whippoor, whip - - poor-will."